

Diaspora Commissions

Diasporas is set to disrupt systems of power in the arts, ignite artistic practices, and represent diverse creatives and their communities.

Diasporas is created for, by and with diverse creatives as an artistic intervention to increase visibility, participation and equity in the arts towards a new arts ecology.

More than a festival, Diasporas holds space for the interrogation and development of arts and cultural practice with diverse artists and communities. Diasporas is a springboard for building culture, connection and knowledge and a training ground for the next generation of producers, designers, technicians, and creatives.

Diasporas will launch in 2021 with a series of commissions open to diverse creatives across Victoria.

Through the Diasporas Commissions, MAV seeks to create opportunities for participation that uphold models of self-determination, by prioritising marginalised and under-represented lived experiences.

Commissions are open to First Nations colleagues and friends as an act of solidarity in their struggle for sovereignty and self determination for collaborative projects with people of colour and solo works.

These commissions will be awarded for:

- creative development alone (no presentation in 2022; possible presentation in 2023);
- creative development with presentation in 2022; or
- presentation of new work (work that has already undergone a creative development).

These categories above apply to all three tiers of commissions; $10,000, $25,000, and $50,000.

DIASPORAS PROVOCATION

Never before has it been more important for diverse creatives to tell their own stories on their own terms.

We choose art for its capacity to transform, critique and redefine power.

We choose art to respond to threats of bigotry and intolerance in our pluralistic society.

We choose art to reveal intersectional, intercultural, intergenerational knowledges.

(Your submission will respond to this provocation as a whole or in part.)

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants who:

- self-identify as First Nations, a Person of Colour, or Culturally or Linguistically Diverse;
- live in Victoria with a current Victorian address;
- intend for the project to be presented in Victoria;
- identify as an emerging or established individual artist or group of artists;
- are able to provide links 1-3 examples of recent solo or collaborative work; and
- are able to meet the requirements stipulated by each commission tier.

MAV is developing a smaller commission series under Diasporas for young, emerging creatives to be announced later in 2021.

FURTHER INFORMATION FOR ARTISTS

Submissions will open from 2 July 2021 and close on 20 August 2021, inviting artists to respond to the provocation above.

Applications will be assessed by an Advisory Group of cultural leaders.

Information sessions will occur on Friday, 22 July 2021 and 5 August 2021 to answer questions relating to applications.

Projects that are awarded commissions will have the opportunity to participate in a series of workshops and mentoring sessions to explore the themes of voice, practice and process and assist in the development of project outcomes.

Commissioned projects may be presented at any time during 2022, but must be completed by December 31st, 2022. We will work with you to identify the best time to present the work.

MAV reserves the first right of refusal for the presentation of the works at Diasporas 2022.
